

100 Of The BEST Copycat Restaurant Recipes

Categories : Cooking, DIY, Recipes

So the other day we featured a post on how to make those utterly delicious Texas Roadhouse rolls. The post included the copycat recipe to make the rolls. Due to the popularity of that post I thought I would look out for some more copycat restaurant recipes, and after a bit of searching I hit pay dirt! I found this awesome post from 'Six Sisters' Stuff', with not just one awesome copycat recipe, but 100 recipes!

If you love cooking and eating out, you just have to check this out as there are copycat recipes for all your favourite restaurants and dishes. Be warned though - it is a very long post with lots of photos of the dishes. You will have to give it a minute to load if you are on a slower connection. I promise you it is worth the wait though.
