Baking soda is truly an amazing product, if you don’t have a box of baking soda in the cupboard, why not? Baking soda is very cheap to buy, but if you think it is only useful for baking, you need to read on...

During the Second World War baking soda was used for so many cooking, cleaning, health/beauty, laundry and DIY tasks. Not only is baking soda able to do a huge number of things, it does most of them very well! Check out the list of 112 uses for baking soda below, go out and purchase a $1 box of baking soda and see for yourself just how useful it is. Wars and times of difficulty really do emphasise that necessity really is the mother of invention.

112 Baking Soda Uses From WWII