

21 Natural Home Remedies For Pets

Categories : General, Homesteading

Every year Americans spend over 50 billion dollars on their pets, with around half of this money spent on vets and simple over-the-counter treatments... It is shocking how much pets can cost when you add up all the food and medical bills (not to mention damage to the home/clothes!) I really wish more people would look into the costs of keeping pets, before rushing out and getting one.

If you are feeling the pinch and you are fed up paying over the odds at the vets, check out the link below, which lists 21 natural home remedies for pets, covering many of the common ailments such as fleas, skin conditions and stomach complaints.
