25 Things That You Should Do To Get Prepared For An Economic Collapse

Are you prepared for the possible economic collapse of society? Many people watch TV shows like Domesday Preppers and assume that preppers are just paranoid obsessives... The thing is - with regards and economic collapse, no one can say 100% that it can't/won't happen, it might seem unlikely, but it can't be ruled out.

With this in mind, does it not then make sense to do some simple things and take some precautions, to help protect and care for your family, just in case? Some simple things such as storing some food and water, stocking up on medical and hygiene supplies, ensure you have flashlights and batteries, and lighters/matches. These are all simple, low cost things you could do, which could make all the difference, if the worst should happen. Check out the link below for a list of 25 things you can do to be more prepared for an economic collapse.
