

25 Weekend DIY Preparedness Projects

Categories : General Prepping, Homesteading

The title of the post says it all really, Food Storage And Survival have compiled a great list of low cost prepping projects that can be completed over the weekend, both indoors and outside...

The projects range from small thirty minute projects, to projects taking several hours, there is something for everyone. Every project you complete though will move you that one step closer to being more prepared.
