8 Foods Banned in Other Countries, That Are Eaten Daily In The US

Categories : General, Health/Fitness

WOW this is pretty shocking stuff! People in the US eat foods every day which are banned in 100+ countries! That's right - banned in 100+ countries, not just one or two... The other scary thing is many of these ingredients are in foods which most of us eat every day - breads, rolls, cakes, potato chips, soda drinks, candy and frozen meals etc.

If you are as concerned about this as I am, check out the list of banned foods and ingredients which are passed safe for consumption in the US, but banned in 100+ of countries in some cases...
