DIY Fly Catchers and Repellents

Categories: Homesteading, Self-Sufficiency, Urban Survival

Flies are everywhere, all year round. If you have animals or plan on living on a homestead, flies will be worse. I love DIY and I love how this article from our friends over at louises-country-closet.com have more than one way to catch flies.

See how you can trap them or repel them. So easy and a great project to get the kids involved with.
