

Do You Have A 'S.C.A.R.E' Bag? (Do you know what one is?)

Categories : General Prepping

Ok so we all pretty much know what a survival bag and bug-out-bag is, but do you know what a S.C.A.R.E bag is? NO? Me neither! Well at least, I didn't until a few days back.

S.C.A.R.E stands for Social Chaos and Response Emergency, so a S.C.A.R.E bag is a small portable, take-everywhere bag that contains all the items required to survive and navigate sudden chaotic events such as riots and looting and pretty much any event which causes people start turning on each other and targeting the weak or those with resources.

What do you think? Is a S.C.A.R.E bag over the top, or is it a great accompaniment to the larger bug-out-bag which usually remains at home? I am undecided, I mean I have a few everyday carry items, but I am not sure I could, or would want to carry all the items in the photo above.

If you want to find out more about S.C.A.R.E kits, what they are for and what they should contain, check out the post below from Dirttime.
