The Elite 'Naval Special Warfare Development Group', known as 'Navy SEAL Team 6' is getting a new compact survival kit and we can get a peak at what's included.

Since these are the guys who raided and took out Osama bin Laden's May 2011, it's probably worthwhile to see what they carry in case of emergency. It's interesting to see duct tape and cotton-wool fire starters as these are two things I highly recommend everyone has in their survival kit, whether that is as part of a bug-out-bag, or simply your hiking/camping gear.
