How To Make A Paracord Cross (Pendant / Necklace)

Categories: Tools & Gear

Everyone knows how useful paracord can be in a survival situation, and many of you have paracord bracelets (we've even showed you how to make them), but today we've got something new to share...

How would you like to make a paracord cross? Now, that's pretty cool!

These make excellent pendant style necklaces, or alternatively you could hang one from your vehicle's rear-view mirror. It's a great way to keep 24 feet of paracord handy, in case of emergency.

Check out the video below and get making. One of these would make an excellent gift for a loved one!
