Ok first things first - you are not going to re-roof your house with these, but they will make a great roof for sheds, chicken coops and dog houses etc...

You're either going to need to drink a lot of beer, or get friends and family to start saving their aluminium cans too. I don't think it will take too long to get enough cans to do a small shed or chicken coop etc. Put the word out and start saving your cans today! Find out how to shape and fit the shingles below.
