So the posts: How To Make Apple Pie Moonshine and How to Make Moonshine – 101 and How To Make Hard Cider where very popular with lots of you guys, so when I saw this banana bourbon on 'Boozed and Infused', I knew you would love it...

The thing is - what's not to like? It has bananas, yum and bourbon, yum. If you stick the two together, that makes yum, yum!

I confess, I haven't tried this yet, but I will soon as I am convinced this will taste amazing. If you have tried it, or you try it before I do, let me know what you think.

If you want to make some yourself, head over to 'Boozed and Infused' and check out their post about making it.
